

Transfer Patients to New Homes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orin revealed today that patients at the State Hospital will be transferred to new homes throughout Arkansas.

The transfer was a result of a lack of space for patients at the State Hospital. The governor said that the new homes would be built in various parts of the state.

The governor said that the new homes would be built in various parts of the state. He added that the transfer would be completed by the end of the year.

Big Chains Remove All Cranberries

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. J. T. Herron, the state health officer, today said two big grocery chains have removed fresh and canned cranberries from their shelves in Arkansas pending outcome of the federal investigation into possible contamination of some of the berries.

Dr. Herron did not identify the companies.

Four Suffer Burns in Ohio Hospital Blaze

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four persons suffered burns and 18 patients of one ward were evacuated today when fire broke out in the offices of Doctors Hospital here.

The fire, which sent smoke hundreds of feet into the air and visible in downtown Columbus, was caused by an accident during a repair job.

Three workmen were welding a copper pipe in a small space above a false ceiling of the first floor, and above the telephone switchboard room. Pumes from a can of adhesive material caught fire from a torch, the torch overturned and kept spreading the fire.

Eighteen children in a pediatric ward on the second floor, ranging from 3 to 16 years of age, were moved to a newly completed wing and a fire door was closed to keep the flames from spreading. Some of the patients had to be carried.

Mac Mendox, 50, a telephone operator; George E. Ridgeway, 25; Wilbur Miller, 25; and Stoner Hall, 20, the workmen, were taken to the hospital's emergency room for treatment of burns.

The fire broke out shortly after 9 a.m., and was placed under control in 20 minutes.

Damage was confined to the first and second-floor offices of the 225-bed hospital. A new, 2½-million-dollar hospital wing just completed is scheduled for dedication Sunday.

City Police said Walton and Wilson both pulled out to pass the Bonds car. The truck caught the right end of the Walton car and when Wilson cut the truck back he hit the left rear fender of Bonds' auto. All three vehicles were heavily damaged. Officers Rowe and Shirley reported.

Also on South Main yesterday an auto driven by Elbert Patterson hit Louis Crain's car while backing out of a parking space. Only minor damage resulted. Officers Sinyard and Shirley reported.

The J. O. Luck family has been named winner of the Balanced Farming Contest for Hempstead County and will enter state competition. The program is sponsored by the Arkansas Power and Light Co. in cooperation with agricultural agencies and civic groups.

Each family is judged on Farm Resource Use, the Home, Rural Leadership, Community Values & Family Life.

Runnerup was the Gordon Prescott family of McCaskill. The scoring was extremely close. Both families have done excellent jobs of farming. The Luck's grow vegetables and produce for home use, have beef cattle and timber. Both families are active in farm organizations, Church affairs and county and community affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Luck will be special guests of the Kiwanis Club at the Farm-City Week program Nov. 24. At this meeting the Hope Star will present them with a plaque and the Chamber of Commerce will present them with $35 as expense money to attend the state meet. Mr. and Mrs. Prescott will also be guests of the club.

George Brown, chairman of the Balanced Farming Committee, paid special tribute to the judges, Mrs. Cline Franks, representing Home Clubs; Ed Thrash, chairman of the C of C Farm Committee and B. N. Holt, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

President to Rest Prior to Goodwill Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower left for Augusta, Ga., today for a rest before his goodwill tour of three continents.

A small White House staff and George E. Allen, businessman and personal friend, accompanied the President on his 24th visit to the Augusta National Golf Club since his 1952 election. The length of his stay this time is indefinite.

DAR Regent Speaks to Local Chapter

Mrs. B. W. McCrary, Regent of the Arkansas Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the John Cain Chapter Wednesday at Diamond Cafe.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Kline Snyder, chapter regent, presided over the business session. Mrs. Nola Butler presented the national defense message.

Mrs. Snyder introduced Mrs. McCrary who discussed the "Faith of Our Fathers" theme.

Coach Broyles Signs a New 5-Year Contract

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Head football coach Frank Broyles today signed a new five year contract with the University of Arkansas.

The action came in the face of recent rumors, which Broyles repeatedly has declared unfounded, that he would leave Arkansas for the University of Florida.

The new contract is for an annual salary of $17,500, the maximum authorized by the Arkansas Legislature.

Broyles came here from Missouri in January, 1953. He received $15,000 last season and was raised to $15,000 this year.

When he was chosen Arkansas coach, Broyles got a five-year contract, but it was subject to renegotiation after two years.

Deputies Fired in Pregnant Prisoner Case

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The sheriff has fired three deputies accused of having intimate relations with women prisoners at the county jail.

Furthermore, Sheriff M. A. Hinds said others may be fired by the time he completes the investigation touched off by the "case of the pregnant prisoner."

Two of the deputies protested bitterly. Kenneth Mattox, 22, and David Climer, 27, said they were falsely accused. They said they were refused a lie detector test.

Hinds said the discharged men were not involved with Lela Fey Fleck, 22, whose embarrassing pregnancy started it all. It was a separate matter involving two other women, he added.

Mrs. Fleck, serving one to five years for robbery, is in City Hospital awaiting the birth of her baby.

Mattox and Climer, who both worked inside the jail, said the young women named by Hinds had threatened to get them fired for refusing to do favors.

The sheriff fired the three men without an announcement, but Mattox and Climer went to newsmen with their protest. The third deputy, John Chesley Lowry, 25, was another rookie on the force.

Hinds said affidavits in the case were sworn by Shelby Jean Pettyjohn, 21, of Memphis and Sheila Swann, 19, of near Winston-Salem, N.C.

Ten Students Injured in Bus Accident

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Negro students were injured, none seriously, yesterday when a school bus plunged into a creek after its steering mechanism failed.

Only two of the students were hospitalized. Both were in good condition. Forty-one students were aboard.

Says Highway Construction Will Decline

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An official of the Arkansas Highway Department said today that highway construction work in this state will fall off about 20 per cent in the next fiscal year.

Chief Engineer Ward Goodman told the Arkansas Highway Users Conference that a retrenchment by the federal Bureau of Public Roads was responsible.

The Bureau recently cut Arkansas' share of federal matching money from $37,800,000 to a little over $30,000,000 for the 1960-61 fiscal year which begins next July 1.

"The federal government is now in the same position that we've been in for years," Goodman said. "It is having to hedge against the possibility of running out of funds when contract commitments come due."

When the Arkansas Highway Department lets a contract now, Goodman said, it has to be certain the money will be available after the job is finished 18 months to two years later.

"We can't let all the contracts at one time or the bills could all come due at one time," he added.

Goodman said the state would have about 4 million dollars worth of road work under contract next year, compared to 51 millions in the current fiscal year.

Texas Negro Group Wants Own Schools

LITTLEFIELD, Tex. (AP)—Negro leaders here say integration is hurting their children's social life and works a hardship on them. So the adults asked for a school in the Negro district again.

The Rev. Walter Griffin, pastor of a Negro church in this West Texas farming center of 8,500, said a group of citizens in the Negro district asked if he would lead an effort to build a school in the Negro section.

Griffin said the integration in 1956 "has been a terrible blow. It's just that the people I speak for feel it would be better for the Negro community if we had a school of our own."

Dollarway Again Denies Negro Trio

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Dollarway School Board last night reaffirmed its decision not to admit three Negroes to the all-white Dollarway School on Pine Bluff's northwest city limits.

The board rejected the Negroes' exceptions to its previous order after a 45-minute closed session.

The action was another step in the board's use of state pupil placement laws to keep the students in the all-Negro Townsend Park School.

The next step — appeal to the courts — is up to the Negroes. George Howard, their Negro attorney, declined comment on his plans.

The students—Earnestine Dove, 16; James E. Warfield, 13, and Corliss Smith, 12—last summer obtained a U.S. District Court order directing their admission to the Dollarway School. This was overturned by the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals which told the students to apply for admission under placement laws.

Both the district and circuit federal courts upheld the placement acts on their face but indicated they could be unconstitutional if applied.

Racial tension has run high in the Dollarway area since the district court integration order was issued. A white crowd stoned the Negroes' cars as they drove away from a board hearing several weeks ago. Only three newsmen appeared at the board meeting last night.

Devises May Make Heart Surgery Safer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy scientists working on space ship problems have developed, as a by-product, a device they say makes heart surgery safer than ever before.

The apparatus warms or cools a patient's blood quickly and without damage — an essential step where surgery involves opening the heart and working inside it.

Surgeons at the Naval Medical Institute in Bethesda, Md., have used the device successfully in more than 30 operations. It is used in conjunction with a heart-lung machine.

Reds Say West Germans Plan New Radio

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union told the Western Allies today that West German plans to build a new radio station in West Berlin may hinder negotiations on the city's future.

The Soviet government, in a protest note, charged setting up the radio would be unlawful and was designed to "step up subversive activity and hostile propaganda."

The protest, quoted by Moscow radio, was sent to the United States, Britain and France, which share control of West Berlin.

The Soviet move was sparked by proposed legislation by West Germany on radio and television policy. The plans include a transmitting station, Deutschland Funk, in West Berlin.

"These actions of the Federal German government cannot be described as anything but a premeditated attempt to interfere with the success of the forthcoming negotiations on the Berlin question," the note said.

When, as a result of the discussions between (Premier) Khrushchev and (President) Eisenhower, more favorable conditions have arisen for reaching agreement on West Berlin," the note said.

The note called on the United States, Britain and France to take steps to "preclude the possibility of such unlawful actions" by the West German government.

The radio proposal is contained in a draft of a new West German radio and television law. It has been approved by the Cabinet of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer but has not yet gone to Parliament.

Whether the new radio project would ever be realized was doubtful. The bill is controversial and state governments are resisting entry of a federal agency into the radio and television field.

Says France Needs Nuclear Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Prime Minister of Africa's Ivory Coast said today that possession of nuclear weapons by France would help assure world peace.

Felix Houphouet-Boigny said at the White House that his country and the 10 others in Africa which belong to the French community of nations all favor France having such weapons.

Presidential Aides Arrive in Rome

ROME (AP)—The U.S. Air Force Boeing 707 jet that will carry President Eisenhower on his 11th national tour next month arrived here today with some 40 presidential aides making advance arrangements for the goodwill journey.

The plane will make a run along the President's itinerary, enlisting the pilot and crew to familiarize themselves with the route and the airports.

Mountains of Drifting Snow Buries Montana

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Mountains of drifting snow buried Montana from border to border today as the area's worst blizzard of the season swept across the Northern Plains states.

The snowfall let up gradually in the morning, but drifts as high as cars had already piled up. Transportation was nearly paralyzed. Many schools closed.

Nearly 10 inches of snow—by far a record for any 24 hours—buried this capital city of 10,000, and more was falling at mid-morning.

Airline service was halted. Buses and trains continued to run, but some were as much as three hours behind schedule.

Cut Bank's 2-below-zero was the coldest temperature in the nation during the night.

Howling gusts shattered plate glass windows in a Missoula department store and cut out street lights in the downtown section overnight.

Montanans, accustomed to rugged winter weather, launched an early morning battle to keep essential traffic and supplies moving. Isolated communities were believed to be well stocked with food and fuel and there were no immediate reports of unusual hardships.

McClellan Proposes Crime Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP) Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said today he is studying the idea of a legislative proposal for establishment of a national crime commission.

McClellan pointed to an 11 per cent increase of major crimes in the United States this year and said, "I am convinced that an effective remedy must be quickly found and applied."

The type of commission he has in mind would co-operate with local law enforcement agencies and would exchange information about crime at its discretion. It would work with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

McClellan emphasized such a commission would not be aimed at usurping any FBI powers.

"There is need for an authority vested with the power and charged with the duty to constantly investigate crime," he said in an interview. He said the need was especially critical in the case of "what is ordinarily spoken of as organized or syndicated crime."

The senator's concept of a commission is based to some degree on investigation by a Senate Rackets Committee he headed.

He said gangsters have infiltrated segments of organized labor and some business and commercial organizations which he did not name.

"The Senate Select Committee," said McClellan, "exposed a number of such instances in its three years of investigation into improper practices in labor-management relations."

These exposures reveal the need for continuous investigations, he said, "or at least standby authority with power to investigate immediately and thoroughly whenever incidents or developments indicate such investigation is needed."

McClellan said he had discussed the concept of a national commission with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers.

Other senators have evidenced interest in the idea, he added.

McClellan said he believed such a commission, which would make annual reports on its work to the President and to Congress, would bolster existing law enforcement agencies on federal and state levels.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are certainly in order for Edward Aslin, switchman at the Telephone Office, who has served as chairman of the Selective Service Board — better known as the Draft Board — for almost ten years. Ed is the only member of the group that he started with that is still serving, and has certainly done an outstanding job. This is one of those jobs that has no pay except for the satisfaction of serving his country and fellowman well. We are always proud of the civic work that our employees do, and this is a fine example.

IDEA FOR THANKSGIVING

In most homes the highlight of Thanksgiving Day is a family get-together and, of course, a big meal that Mom spent half the day cooking.

Juicy turkey, tasty dressing and all the trimmings. Yes, a happy occasion for the whole family, and Mom deserves a pat on the back for making it that way.

But is that all? A friend of mine has come up with the idea that really makes a hit at his house.

"Last Thanksgiving," he told me, "as I watched my wife fixing dinner, I felt she deserved a reward. I was wondering what I might give her, and then I decided — a long distance call."

"Great idea," I said. "How'd she like it?"

He smiled. "That long distance call was sort of like our family pie."

"How's that?" I asked.

"The whole family enjoyed it."

IT'S SMART TO HAVE A BEDROOM PHONE

I've been noticing that quite a few people in Hope have decided that it's a good idea to have an extension phone in their bedroom.

I can understand how they feel, because bedroom phones really are convenient.

They add beauty to the room, and give you convenience and privacy during the day and a real sense of security at night.

Why don't you call the telephone company business office and order one now? Because the faster you do, the sooner you can start enjoying it.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

DOROTHY DIX

Wants Girl He Betrayed to Share Him With Another

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I am 22, the man I love is 22. Three months ago I broke our engagement because I found I was pregnant and I did not want to burden him. Later I had a miscarriage.

In the last part of our engagement, his love for me seemed to be weakening.

I spent five evenings a week with him, but he complained it wasn't enough, and my health began to suffer because of the late hours I kept. When I told him about the miscarriage, he said I was entirely responsible for everything that had happened. Now he has another girl and says he doesn't know which of us he loves.

He wants alternate dates with me and the other girl. Although I realize his faults, I cannot stay away from him. I love him. Will you help me to carry on through or shall I go ahead and leave him?

Dear Heartbroken: On no single count does he rate the most casual consideration of a decent girl — yet you are fooling yourself into believing you love him. Some day you'll look back and be very much ashamed. True love cannot exist without respect. You can't possibly respect a man who lured you into physical submission. He won't even accept the moral responsibility for what you've gone through, takes up with another — and probably equally acquiescent — girl, then puts you to the final humiliation of expecting you to share dates with her. He's taking no chances. While you still have some self-respect, break off with him.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I met an Air Force man while on a cruise last summer. He asked me to correspond with him, and we wrote each other for some time. I received the last letter from him two months ago, although I have been sending him pictures and a package or two. There is a possibility that he may have been transferred. Should I write again or forget the whole thing? — Sugar

Dear Sugar: Since mail does mean so much to boys away from home, and mail service is so uncertain, don't give up unless you are quite sure your letters are being received and ignored. Try another one or two anyway. If he has been transferred, he'll receive all your mail in a batch.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
Last year I graduated from high school and was unable to continue on to college. Most of the town-age social activity in my town centers around the high school group, so I go along with my friends to dances, etc. Older people tell me I shouldn't do this since I have left school. — Mabel

Labor Chief Ready to Pay Off a Bet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell today ate his hat—a fedora made of cake—because unemployment failed to fall below three million last month as he had predicted. But Mitchell sent a slice apiece to the leaders of the steel strike which kept joblessness high. President David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers Union and the industry's top bargainer R. Conrad Cooper.

"I was a couple of hundred thousand off in my predictions, due entirely to the steel strike, not to any weakness in our economy," Mitchell said.

Unemployment in October was 3,270,000 though employment was 66,800,000, a record for the month. Mitchell in April predicted that by last month employment would rise to 67 million and joblessness would drop below 3 million.

When AFL-CIO President George Meany accused him of talking through his hat, Mitchell promised to eat his headpiece on the front steps of the Labor Department if he were proved wrong.

Aides to the secretary had a hat made of cake so the boss wouldn't get indigestion paying off.

The detailed figures given out by the Labor Department after the symbolic hat eating showed that employment rose 434,000 in October to 66,831,000. Unemployment rose 42,000 to 3,272,000.

The proportion of unemployment to the work force rose from 5.6 per cent in September to 6 per cent in October. The ratio was 5.3 per cent last April when Mitchell made his predictions.

Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, estimated the layoffs due to the steel strike rose to the neighborhood of half a million before the strikers went back to work under a Taft-Hartley law court injunction. Officials calculated that unemployment in October would have been in the neighborhood of 2,800,000, or nearly a half million less than the actual figures, if there had been no steel strike.

Average hourly earnings of factory workers declined slightly to $2.21, lowering average weekly earnings to $89.06.

Mitchell made his forecasts in a speech last April to a giant AFL-CIO rally here. Over 5,000 union members, many unemployed, demanded more government jobless aid and job-making moves.

The latest prior job and jobless totals, for September, were announced a month ago. They showed 66,347,000 employed and 3,230,000 unemployed. The steel strikers and others idled in labor walkouts are not counted as unemployed, but those furloughed as a result of strikes are included.

Actually, Mitchell's prediction of 67 million employed by October came true much earlier. June, July and August all showed working totals topping that figure. Because of the steel strike the figure since has slid back below 67 million.

Negroes Assigned in Virginia Schools

FLOYD, Va. (AP) The Floyd County School Board, acting under a federal judge's order, has assigned 12 Negroes to two all-white high schools. They will enter at the start of the second semester, Jan. 25.

It will be the first public school integration in south-east Virginia.

Workers Return to El Dorado Plant

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Employees began reporting back for work today at American Oil Co.'s refinery here as a 134-day strike came to an end.

Refinery Manager H. A. Heiss said resumption of full production would not take long since supervisory personnel have kept the refinery operating on a limited basis in recent months.

Management and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union signed a new contract yesterday. The pact, which extends until June 30, 1961, includes some upward adjustment in wage scales, provisions for a wage reopen in one year and a no-strike, no-lockout clause.

Heiss said the union agreed to company demands for the right to assign workers to certain minor jobs outside their work classification.

One Branch Works Fewer Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's executive branch has 2 per cent fewer civilian employees than it had five years ago, but pays them 30 per cent more. This was reported today by the Senate-House Committee on Production of Nonessential Federal Expenditures. It said the bulge in payroll costs is explained by pay raises voted by Congress, and raises granted administratively from time to time by federal agencies.

Some 370 refinery employees left their jobs at midnight June 30th when the old contract expired. Heiss said wages at the refinery now range from $2.10 to 3.22 an hour with an hourly average of $2.55.

Wedding Shower Given in Honor of Mrs. Don Hall
A Miscellaneous Wedding shower honoring Mrs. Don Hall was given on October 29 in the home of Mrs. Clyde Tullis by Mrs. John Norvell and Mrs. Verda Brown.

The honoree wore a black dress with a string of pearls. A white corsage with wedding bells and orange blossoms was given her by the hostesses.
Chrysanthemums and Dahlias in white and yellow decorated the home where the party was held. Games were played with Mrs. Jerry Johnson and Mrs. W. P. Pettit winning prizes which they gave to the bride. Cake, coffee and punch was served to the 23 guests.

Mrs. Gene Mankin Arrington
Weds Alfred Delma Brannan, Jr. The Parlor of the First Baptist Church, Shreveport, Louisiana, was the setting on Saturday, November 7th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for the marriage of Mrs. Gene Mankin Arrington and Alfred Delma Brannan, Jr.

The ceremony was performed before the mantle in the church parlor, which held an arrangement of yellow and white chrysanthemums flanked by palms and branched candelabra. Preceding the ceremony Dr. Denny E. Gamble of Shreveport lighted the candles. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mankin, Pensacola, Florida. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Brannan of Hope. Dr. J. W. Middleton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Shreveport, officiated in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride was lovely in a dress of turquoise peau de soie which had a full skirt and wide cuffs to accent the full three-quarter sleeves. She wore a small clip hat and matching French veil. She carried gold colored orchids on a small white Bible.
Mrs. Carroll H. Gayne of Shreveport attended the bride as matron of honor, and John Warren Brannan of Hope attended his brother as best man. On return from a trip to Mexico, the couple will reside at 330 Yolanda Lane, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Seven tables played the Mitchell movement. North-South winners were: Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brents, 1st; Mrs. J. M. Duffie and Mrs. A. K. Holloway, 2nd; Mrs. R. L. Branch and Mike Kelly, 3rd. East-West winners were: Mrs. Harry Hawthorne and Mrs. Marie Hendrix, 1st; Mrs. Bill Roulton and Miss Troy Hammons, 2nd; Mrs. John Hatley and Luther Hollamon, 3rd.

White and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the buffet table where dessert and coffee were served during the evening. Dr. and Mrs. Bill McCollon of Camden were out-of-town players.

Mrs. Paul Church Hostess to Dorcas Sunday School Class
The November meeting of the Dorcas Class of the Garrett Memorial Baptist church was held in the home of Mrs. Paul Church Tuesday night, November 10. Mrs. James Braden opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Jack Watkins, class vice president, conducted a short business meeting after which Mrs. Watkins lead the group in the singing of several songs with Miss Ginger Church at the piano. Mrs. Church presented the devotional and the closing prayer was voiced by Mrs. Tom Duckett.

After the meeting was adjourned, Mrs. Jim Laughard was honored with a pink and blue shower. Games for the occasion were conducted by Mrs. James Braden and Mrs. Jack Watkins. The honoree was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Following the opening and displaying of the gifts, the hostess served refreshments to the 17 members and guest present.

Bobcats Go to Arkadelphia Friday Night

Coach John Pierce's Hope High Bobcats journey to Arkadelphia Friday night for an important District 4AA Conference game with the Arkadelphia High School Badgers.

A win for the Bobcats would insure them of at least a tie for the Conference crown. Crossett, Snackover and Hope are deadlocked in first place with one loss each.

Coach Pierce is fearful that overconfidence could prove to be the downfall of his strong Bobcats. Arkadelphia is occupying the cellar in conference play and Pierce is afraid that the Cats are taking the Badgers too lightly.

The Hope coach attributes the Cats' lone loss in conference play to Snackover to this same "bug-a-boo" over confidence. The Cats had just defeated strong DeQueen and the next week Snackover took them into camp by a one touchdown margin.

The Bobcats came out of the Conway game in good shape with no new injuries reported. Eddie King, fast halfback, who missed the Wampus Cat game is still a doubtful. His replacements Onke, and Arnett, who have given a good account of themselves, are expected to bear the brunt of the action.

Even though taking a solid 14 to 6 win over Conway last week the Bobcats were dropped by the pollsters to the unranked class in Arkansas football and were unlisted in the first 20.

Next week the Bobcats have an open date and close out their season against Nashville in a Thanks, giving tilt at Hope.

Man Amputates His Own Arm

ALMA, Ga. (AP) — "I cut a little bit at first just to see how bad it would hurt. All the feeling was gone, and it didn't hurt a bit. So I started whacking away."

Thus did Henry Ahl, 47, tell how he began amputating his left arm between the wrist and elbow when it became entangled in a corn-picking machine at his farm near Alma. The accident occurred last Thursday, and Ahl described his 30-minute ordeal from his hospital bed Wednesday.

Ahl rode a tractor part of the way to his farmhouse, a half-mile distant after his pen-knife surgery. A neighbor met him and carried him to the Bacon County Hospital where his condition was reported as good.

Full Slate of Games in the Conference

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Any idea Texas Christian might have had that it would meet a Texas team that was complacent has been dissipated Wednesday. The Longhorns romped through a spirited workout that had usually dour Coach Darrell Royal smiling.

Royal was pleased with the spirit shown in drills that lead to the big battle with TCU in Austin Saturday when the Southwest Conference championship goes on the line.

Texas Christian worked mostly on passing as the Horned Frogs aimed to lift their aerial attack to a respectable average. Thus far the Frogs have been rather puny at passing with 390.

But while TCU tried to fashion aerial game that might worry Texas, Coach Abe Martin said he wasn't concerned with Texas passing but "It's their running attack—those sweeps and traps."

Fullback Don Allen, who has been on the injury list, was back for contact work and Royal said Allen would be ready for game action for the first time in a month. Texas Christian has no injuries.

Both Southern Methodist and Arkansas, who meet in Dallas Saturday in a fight to stay in the championship race, were working on their passing games. Quarterback George McKinney ran the first Arkansas unit while injured Jim Monroe alternated on the undefeated Junior High School Bobkittens close out their most successful season with the Camden Juniors here. Kickoff time for the homecoming game is 7:30 with the 7th and 8th grade preliminary set for 6 p.m.

Porkers Work on Passing Game and Defense

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks worked on their passing attack Wednesday as they began the final phase of preparation for Saturday's game against aerial-minded Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

Quarterback George McKinney gave receivers a lengthy workout on both quickie and long passes. McKinney is running the first unit this week since Jim Monroe is hampered with an injury.

Monroe joined the workout yesterday and alternated with Bubba Ferguson in directing the second team.

Still on the sidelines was Jim Mooney, the Porkers' leading ground gainer and the Hogs' top candidate for all-conference honors at halfback. Mooney was hurt in last week's 14-10 victory over Rice and is a doubtful starter against SMU. Also absent was tackle Jim Hollander.

The Razorbacks can clinch second place in the conference by beating SMU. A triumph, combined with a Texas Christian victory over Texas, would assure the Porkers of at least a tie for the title.

Arkansas also worked on defense against SMU's spread formation from which crack quarterback Don Meredith throws his devastating passes.

Down in Dallas, the Ponies worked long and hard on the air game yesterday. Coach Bill Meek said he was pleased with the workout—both in regard to Meredith's flinging and SMU's defense against Arkansas formations as run by the freshman squad.

Second unit. Injured halfback Jim Mooney and tackle Jim Hollander still were doubtful.

Southern Methodist had only one player definitely out of action—halfback Frank Jackson, who already has missed two games because of an injury.

Rice worked behind locked gates in preparing for the Texas Aggies, whom they meet in Houston Saturday. The Owls still didn't know whether they would have center Jerry Graves and halfback Max Webb for the game.

Texas A&M worried about injuries and illness. Halfback Randy Sims was taken to a hospital and was believed to have the flu. End Travis Nevill still was on the doubtful list due to a leg injury. Baylor, which plays Southern California in Los Angeles, was cheered by the return to full action of Bobby Ply, the regular quarterback.

Casey Jones' Pal Dies in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—William H. Crittenden, 32, who was on Casey Jones' Cannonball Express when it wrecked 29 years ago, died here Wednesday.

Crittenden was the last known survivor of the famed wreck on the Illinois Central at Valden, Miss.

Crittenden, a native of Centerville, Ill., remembered the crash vividly.

Crittenden said he watched four men carrying a cot. He said Jones was on the cot and that was his last memory of him.

Later he heard that Jones was dead and that his Negro fireman, Sim Webb, had leaped to safety several years ago.

Negro rail laborers sang about the big smashup and a writer later immortalized it in a ballad.

Picks Bobcats to Win Over Arkadelphia

By WICK TEMPLE

Associated Press Staff Writer
The top games in the Big Nine Conference this week hold an air of desperate hope for three teams. Fort Smith, Pine Bluff and North Little Rock can retain mathematical chances at the title with victories.

But the two most likely championship teams—Hall and El Dorado—play set-ups this week in preparation for next week's blood battle at El Dorado. Hall takes on Class AA Jacksonville and El Dorado meets weak Hot Springs.

Pine Bluff pl. sychast i cold rival Little Rock Central in the Zebras' last-gasp attempt. Central lost to North Little Rock last week, 14-12, and was eliminated from title contention. Pine Bluff still is 4-2-0 and could tie for the crown by winning the rest of its games.

Fort Smith goes to North Little Rock for its do-or-die effort. The grizzlies have been beaten by both Hall and El Dorado but still could tie by winning the rest.

North Little Rock is a 100-to-one shot since the Wildcats have lost two and tied one.

Elytheville plays at Texarkana in a game pitting two teams who already are out of it.

Here's the outlook:
Pine Bluff 11, Central 6. The Zebras should be ready after a 6-6 tie with Wynne.

Jonesboro 10, Helena 14. One of the best AA games in the state. The Hurricane made an excellent showing against Forrest City, losing by only 13-7. That gives Jonesboro the edge.

Stuttgart 13, Newport 0. The Ricebirds still want to prove they're second best in 2AA.

Wynne 20, Paragould 0. Wynne will be getting ready for Jonesboro.

Conway 7, Benton 6. A great one for these two runnerup candidates in 3AA. A tossup.

Snackover 13, Mavlen 7. A non-league game and a tough one to pick. Both are good and Mavlen was much improved last week in a 6-0 victory over Benton. Either way.

Hope 20, Arkadelphia 0. Erratic Arkadelphia could upset, but Hope has the best record and is steady.

Magnolia 13, Camden 0. The single-wing Panthers should have little trouble.

Crossett 26, Fairview 7. The Eagles are enthused with the possibility of a 4AA championship. Also they should be hot after the near-miss with Big Nine Pine Bluff.

G&F Reports Deer Killed in State 4,962

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission today said that 4,962 deer had been reported killed legally during the first three days of the present open season.

That compares with 3,600 legal kills during the corresponding period in 1958.

For the first time in some 15 or 20 years the entire state is open for deer hunting this year.

Gus Albright, the commission's publicity director, said the three-day figure was incomplete but "pretty close" to the actual count.

Albright said 42 illegal kills of deer or under-sized bucks had been reported. Forty-five illegal kills were reported during the corresponding period in 1958.

Despite the opening of territory elsewhere which has not been hunted in recent years, most deer still were killed in southeast Arkansas.

Ashley and Desha counties led the list with 200 legal kills reported in each.

The first half of Arkansas' split season opened Monday for six days. A similar six-day period will be open next month.

There were 7,800 legal kills in the first half of the 1958 season and 9,825 kills for both periods to set a record.

With all sections open for hunting, sportsmen speculated that a new record probably would be set this year.

a warmup. The Warriors won't use both barrels.

Texasarkana 20, Elytheville 7. The Chicks make the long trip and the Hogs have Mike Edwards.

In Class AA
Fayetteville 12, Springfield Parkview 7. The Bulldogs are rolling. They should come back strong after a splendid showing in a 6-0 loss to tough Raytown, Mo.

Harrison 7, Van Buren 6. Van Buren is erratic but Harrison's Gobblins have been fairly steady.

Rogers 20, Springdale 12. Springdale is unpredictable but Rogers has 1AA title aspirations and will be ready.

Subiaco 14, Russellville 0. Forrest City 33, West Memphis 0. A whistle stop for the Mustangs in their march to an undefeated season. But they'll be looking ahead to their shaky Nov. 26 date with Wynne.

Jonesboro 10, Helena 14. One of the best AA games in the state. The Hurricane made an excellent showing against Forrest City, losing by only 13-7. That gives Jonesboro the edge.

Stuttgart 13, Newport 0. The Ricebirds still want to prove they're second best in 2AA.

Blames Split Policy for Aid Failure
STUTTGART, Ark. (AP)—Sen. J.W. Fulbright blames a split government and a Republican president and a Democratic Congress—for what he calls failure to develop a strong foreign policy.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a speech yesterday that as a result of this situation, "The nation is not making progress in the competition with Russia."

The split government makes it impossible for the voter to fix responsibility on any one party.

For GOOD LIVING!

Myra Waldo's new and exciting book of recipes entitled "Beer and Good Food" gives us the following idea to brighten your home menu.

PEPPER STEAK

- 3 pounds round or chuck steak
- 3 tablespoons salad oil
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 tea-pon fresh ground black pepper
- 6 green peppers, thinly sliced
- 6 onions, thinly sliced
- 1 20-ounce can tomatoes
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 2 bay leaves
- 1/4 tea-pon thyme
- 1/2 cup beef broth

Have the steak cut about 1 inch thick and then in 2 pieces. Heat the oil in a skillet and brown the steak on both sides.

In a casserole or Dutch oven, place 1 piece of steak, sprinkle with salt and pepper, then add a layer of green pepper and onions. Repeat with the remaining steak, pepper, and onions. Add the tomatoes, tomato sauce, bay leaves, thyme, and broth. Cover and cook over low heat 2 hours, or until tender. Stir once or twice and taste for seasoning. Discard bay leaf.

Serves 6-8.

There's special meal magic in Pepper Steak. Try this unique recipe featured in Myra Waldo's new cookbook. For added pleasure, serve a glass of cool

Chapter XXII
"Senhora, look what I read!" Adalza said excitedly as Sara came out of her bedroom. She held out a newspaper and ran a finger up and down a column. "What did the Senhor Fontes say about this?"

Sara took the paper. "The Humane Society of the City of Belem will present the brave Senhor Manoel Fontes a medal for saving the life of an elderly Indian watchman in a fire last April. The presentation will be made at the office of the mayor, followed by a luncheon . . ."

Si — she wouldn't have to wait for his leaving town. She could talk to the men today. "He didn't mention it, Adalza."

Manoel had never mentioned anything that gave her any light on the fire, but she didn't have to depend on him now. She was going to induce his employees to talk to expose the defrauder, whoever it might be. She was going to stick to this job, from this minute on, and forget volcanic brown eyes, and a touch that electrified her.

She ordered a taxi for 10:30. She would check that Manoel's car was gone before she set foot on the levee. She put on a plain brown dress, which she had not worn here before, and pulled a brown beret over her hair.

At 11 she was still waiting for the taxi. The telephone rang. "I was late to work this morning," Manoel said.

"You are blaming me?" She could hardly restrain herself from asking him where he was.

"I was dreaming so happily, pretty palace, that I could not open my eyes. May I see you tonight? Take you dancing? You promised to go sometime, remember?"

"Tonight, Manoel?" she repeated, trying to collect her thoughts. Adalza was dusting on the other side of the room; she was also listening. "At tell him, senhora." She waved the newspaper.

"Tell him that we saw it." "Sara, what's wrong? Please let me see you tonight, querida." The way he said querida — darling — she couldn't even think. "Some other time."

"Tomorrow night?" "I don't know," she began and heard a commotion of men's voices through the receiver.

"Sara, I'll call you tomorrow. I thought I could escape" — he paused — "an interview." She heard the other voices above his telling him to come along.

So he had tried to bypass the ceremony and they had come for him. Her taxi was pulling up out front.

Sara casually opened the door to the warehouse office. It was empty. She had hoped to start with Manoel. She started across the room toward the door, into the storage area. Manoel ought to be watching who came and went. Surely they weren't all out to lunch.

Then she heard voices coming from the storage room. Suddenly through the clear glass in the door she saw something familiar. A coco-brown straw hat on the back of a head. A stubby pink feather. The head started to turn.

Sara dodged out of sight toward the other end of the office. The last thing in the world she wanted was to be seen here by Guaro de Faria. She jerked open the closet door and hid herself inside, between the refrigerator and Manoel's raincoat. She left the door ajar so she would be able to hear anyone in the office. Then she discovered that she could hear voices in the storage area plainly from here; the partition was a thin one. Guaro's loud tones were unmistakable.

"No matter what you take away from them," he was saying, "you wouldn't be able to take what they owe you." He was using the Portuguese familiar second person. "All of you have had a relative on the Fontes estate" — he so slurred the name that Sara could feel the hatred in it — "just as I have. Your uncle was there when the old man was living."

Joao said something Sara did not catch. "I know all about him, Joao," Guaro went on. "The old man made your poor uncle go out to tap trees after the rains had begun when he was half dead with tuberculosis. And many a time the old man refused him food until he smoked a 50-pound biscuit. And by then your poor sick uncle would be too weak to go get dinner."

"Sim, senhor, sim," Joao but in audibly. "One of the other men said something and Guaro's voice came again. 'I know about that, too. The old man beat him because he didn't get back until the boat had cast off with a load. What time will that bookkeeper return?' His changed tone indicated that he didn't want to be here then. 'He isn't one of us. Coming from Ceara — Ceara was a farming state — he's never had anyone hurt in the clothes of a Fontes. But you men force the bookkeeper came back stick with me . . ."

She pushed the door open cautiously and stepped out. The voices were inaudible again. She moved across the room, silently, opened the outer door, silently, and held the knob so there was no empty. She had hoped to start with Manoel. She started across the room toward the door, into the storage area. Manoel ought to be watching who came and went. Surely they weren't all out to lunch.

Then she heard voices coming from the storage room. Suddenly through the clear glass in the door she saw something familiar. A coco-brown straw hat on the back of a head. A stubby pink feather. The head started to turn.

Sara dodged out of sight toward the other end of the office. The last thing in the world she wanted was to be seen here by Guaro de Faria. She jerked open the closet door and hid herself inside, between the refrigerator and Manoel's raincoat. She left the door ajar so she would be able to hear anyone in the office. Then she discovered that she could hear voices in the storage area plainly from here; the partition was a thin one. Guaro's loud tones were unmistakable.

"No matter what you take away from them," he was saying, "you wouldn't be able to take what they owe you." He was using the Portuguese familiar second person. "All of you have had a relative on the Fontes estate" — he so slurred the name that Sara could feel the hatred in it — "just as I have. Your uncle was there when the old man was living."

Joao said something Sara did not catch. "I know all about him, Joao," Guaro went on. "The old man made your poor uncle go out to tap trees after the rains had begun when he was half dead with tuberculosis. And many a time the old man refused him food until he smoked a 50-pound biscuit. And by then your poor sick uncle would be too weak to go get dinner."

"Sim, senhor, sim," Joao but in audibly. "One of the other men said something and Guaro's voice came again. 'I know about that, too. The old man beat him because he didn't get back until the boat had cast off with a load. What time will that bookkeeper return?' His changed tone indicated that he didn't want to be here then. However, the 370 striking workers will not return to their jobs until a formal contract is drafted and signed.

Wayne Soner, an international representative for the union, said labor representatives will meet with management to draw up the pact. He said he expected no difficulty since both sides had agreed there.

Facts of Life
All Around
Arkansas

By BOB HARING
 Associated Press Staff Writer

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Sneed of Leachville don't have any trouble remembering the birthdays of their three sons.

All three of the boys were born on the same date.

Mark Edison arrived at 3:43 p.m. Oct. 27, 1954. Just a year later—at 8:45 a.m.—Phillip Davis came along. And this past Oct. 27, Stephen Paul was born.

Stephen barely made it, though. He didn't get here until 10:55 p.m. Not only do the boys share birth days, but all three were born in the same room at the same hospital and Dr. Grover Poole delivered all three.

Sneed said Oct. 27 wasn't a particularly significant day for the family—until the boys arrived.

While it does make remembering birthdays easy, it necessitates triple gifts. But it could have been worse. They all might have been born on Christmas Day.

Children at the Arkansas Children's Colony in Conway can go for a train ride just about any time they want.

They can't go far, however. Their train—a miniature locomotive with four cars—travels on about 2,000 feet of track. It'll go up to 45 miles an hour.

The Little Rock chapter of the Railway Business Women's Assn. sponsored a drive to raise $21,000 for the junior railroad. Employees of the Missouri Pacific Railroad donated labor to lay the track and build necessary bridges and signal equipment.

Materials and other labor were donated by railroads operating in Arkansas and the various railway unions.

Plans call for construction of a miniature brick depot and installation of junior-sized crossing gates to protect the loading platform.

The train's three coaches and observation car will hold about 40 children. Or, Colony officials add, about 42 adults.

Hot Springs has a television star. You're not likely to be able to get his autograph, though.

The star, Caesar, is a cat. Caesar was raised by Jane Evans, an 8-year-old school girl.

He was trained for his TV performance—in a cat food commercial—by Bob Garner and Keat Burgess. Training cats is supposed to be difficult if not downright impossible, but Burgess doesn't agree.

He says, "Cats aren't dumb. It's been dumb." Either way, the men just the psychologists who have apparently created a successful actor. Garner said Caesar "performed more reliably than the human actor" in his TV bit.

A musically-inclined thief helped himself to a $200 item from a Little Rock freight company last week.

The burglar smashed a window to get into the building, then stole an electric table model organ and a matching table. Police couldn't recall any previous theft of an organ.

Freight company officials said

Four Sentenced for Rape of Woman

NEW YORK (AP) — Three young Negroes and a Puerto Rican youth have been sentenced to prison terms for the rape of a white woman who was seized and hauled off to the apartment of one of the youths.

Brooklyn Judge John R. Starkey sentenced the youths Tuesday.

The woman, 44, whose name whoever look the boxes knew what he was looking for. Nothing else was bothered. Apparently he just wanted an organ.

was withheld by authorities, was on her way to work Sept. 10. She was set upon near a subway station in Brooklyn and driven to an apartment in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section. She was raped by the four youths there.

Louis Vitella, 19, the Puerto Rican; Daniel Bellamy, 20, and Jimmie Lunsford, 17, interrupted their trial Oct. 10 and pleaded guilty while the jury was deliberating. Alexander Williams, 18, stayed on trial and was convicted by the jury.

Vitella got 15 to 30 years, Lunsford and Williams 10 to 20 years each, and Bellamy 7 1/2 to 15 years.

Cities Need for U. S. to Help Colleges

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—American colleges and universities will need 22 billion dollars to expand facilities over the next 10 years, and the federal government will have to provide most of the money, a university president said today.

"The question we face today is not whether there will be federal support but what kind it ought to be," C. Clement French of Washington State University told the members of the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities.

"We have talked in generalities about the need for federal aid," said French, president of the association. "I think this is a luxury we can no longer afford."

Whether educators like it or not, he said, "we must face squarely the fact that the solution of this problem must be made in federal dollars. We may deplore the inadequacy of our state support, but deploping alone will not solve our problems."

French said many present federal aid programs do more to solve the problem of the federal legislative action to solve them.

"At a time when we face the increasing problem of numbers, much of the federal legislative action is given to the encouragement of additional numbers of students."

Bills, however, which would make possible loans for college building for payment of ROTC facilities and for proper payment of administrative costs in the administration of grants either are institutions, but rather how they should go," he said.

Boat Overturns, Man Feared Lost

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—A

Brinkley man fell into the White River when a speedboat overturned yesterday and was presumed drowned.

Searchers today had found no trace of Hershal E. Parker, 33.

Authorities said Parker, father of six small children, was on a deer hunt with two other men they were traveling in the boat near the junction of the White and Cache Rivers, some 12 miles south of here when the craft hit a log and overturned. The other men swam to shore.

A dental veto upon passage.

French acknowledged that federal aid to public institutions inevitably will raise the question of similar aid to private colleges and universities.

"We can no longer ask whether federal funds should go to private institutions, but rather how they should go," he said.

Garcia Piling Up Lead in Philippines

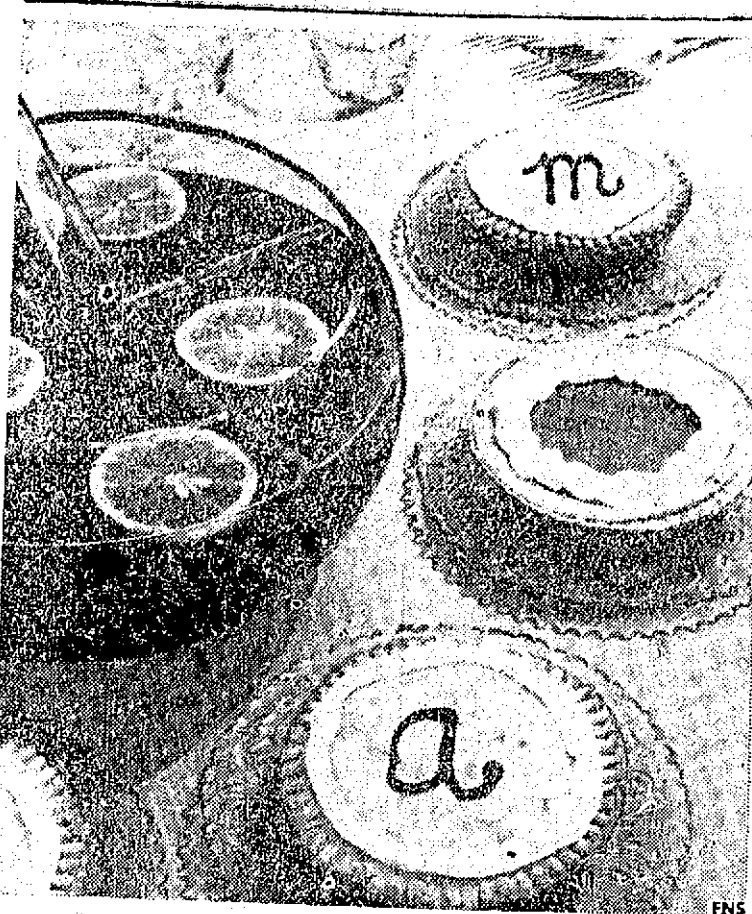

By JIM BECKER

MANILA (AP)—President Carlos P. Garcia's lead, well-beeled Nacionalista party incumbent, began piling up election leads from remote areas of the Philippines today. But five of Garcia's opponents still led in the battle for eight seats in the national Senate.

With about a third of the votes in Tuesday's nationwide election reported, Garcia candidates were pushing opposition leaders. But the President's hopes for re-election in 1961 were not helped by a strong anti-Garcia vote in the cities.

Garcia's own right-hand man, former Executive Secretary Juan

Frozen Dessert Pies Take To Autumn

There's an old story of a white man . . . named "White Hawk" by the Indians . . . who, when asked to deliver a pumpkin to the Chief, presented him with a wagonload, claiming that he wasn't a "one-pumpkin" man. Once you discover the flavor and richness of frozen individual pumpkin pies, you'll be more than a "one-pumpkin" pie eater. This scene will be repeated not only at the dinner table . . . throughout the fall and winter seasons . . . but into the evening when you've issued invitations for "dessert and bridge."

Pumpkin pie partners during this season are just what you'd expect . . . frozen individual mince and apple pies. After they've baked to a golden autumn brown they'll remind you of the days when the sleigh went "over the hills and through the woods."

to sample Grandmother's pies. Modern in method, old-fashioned in flavor, these are the pies for you.

When baking several kinds at once . . . especially the double-crust pies . . . you must be able to identify them for guests. An inexpensive tube of cake decorating jelly is ideal for this as you outline . . . on the surface . . . an "A" for apple, and "M" for mince. Pipe a border of whipped cream around all three (apple, mince, and pumpkin) kinds. Serve with this punch:

Autumn Punch
1 quart apple juice
6 whole cloves
2 cinnamon sticks
4 to 4 thin lemon slices
In saucepan, combine all ingredients. Heat to boiling; simmer about 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

C. Pajo, was far down on the list of senatorial candidates in 1960 place. The top eight will be elected.

Counting was expected to continue into Thursday. There was no possibility of the government losing the 24-member Senate since it controls 13 hold-over seats. But the election of the eight senators and provincial and local officials throughout the nation was watched for clues to the next presidential race.

Poes of the President who charged graft and corruption in administration ranks swept to resounding victories in the two key cities, Manila and Cebu.

Colorful Mayor Arsenio M. Lacson won a smashing third-term victory in Manila, enhancing his presidential chances. A dissident Nacionalista, he has called Garcia a national disaster.

Opponents of the President also led by a wide margin in the Cebu races for mayor and governor of the province.

Donovan Named to Colony Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus yesterday named Francis T. Donovan of Conway to the Arkansas children's Colony Board to succeed Robert D. Nabholz of Conway, who resigned. Donovan's term expires Jan. 10, 1966.

R. H. Gladden, of Little Rock was appointed to the state Athletic Commission to succeed R. C. Hutcheson of Fort Smith. William West of West Memphis and Dr. Garland Murphy of El Dorado were reappointed to the athletic board. All three terms expire March 9, 1961.

Faubus appointed Vincent W. Foster of Hope to the Arkansas Real Estate Commission. He replaces Shaffer Haley of Pine Bluff. The term expires Aug. 6, 1962.

Sauce Flank Steak With Canned Beef Gravy

Now that cold, snappy days are here, it's time to serve hearty, satisfying meals. After braving the weather from the office and way home from the office and school... dad and the children will welcome a good, warming home-cooked dinner.

Try BARBECUED FLANK STEAK... it's delightfully different! The flank steak is coated with seasoned flour, browned, then slowly simmered in a sauce of canned beef gravy, chili sauce, and mustard for a delicious blending of flavors. Watch your family's eyes light up with the first bite. They're sure to want it again, so guard the recipe carefully.

Buttered green beans... and a crisp cabbage salad are nice go-alongs. For dessert... a selection of fall fruit completes the menu and provides a colorful centerpiece for the dinner table. Don't forget plenty of hot coffee!

Barbecued Flank Steak
1 flank steak (about 1½ pounds)
2 tablespoons flour

½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
1 clove garlic, minced
1 medium onion, sliced
1 can (10½ ounces) beef gravy
½ cup chili sauce
½ teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Score both sides of steak by making shallow diagonal cuts about ¼-inch apart. With meat hammer, or edge of heavy saucer, pound in flour seasoned with salt and pepper. In skillet, brown steak on both sides in shortening. Add garlic and onion. Combine, pour over meat. Cover; cook over low heat for 2 hours. Spoon sauce over steak now and then. Sprinkle with chopped parsley just before serving. (If desired, remove cover during last 20 minutes to thicken gravy.) Makes 6 servings.

NOTE: If electric skillet is used, Brown meat at 400°F., then lower to 210°F. and cook, covered, about 2 hours.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork loin and leg of lamb, but not cranberries, are getting the super-duper type in supermarket advertisements this week.

Heavy supplies of both pork and lamb make it possible to offer bargains on the two meats. The cranberry crop is heavy, too—in fact government experts look for a record production—but a number of chains have removed cranberries and cranberry products from their shelves until the contamination situation becomes clearer.

Loin of pork is being featured in the South, East and Midwest, while the more expensive cured ham is the top attraction on the West and East Coasts. Pork cuts of all types are being pushed these days as the huge spring crop of little pigs starts coming to market.

Rib roast also is cheaper in some areas this week, with reductions running from 4 to 14 cents a pound. Sirloin steak also is lower in a few sections, and most of the beef items listed as specials run toward the more expensive types such as sirloin or porterhouse steak, rib roast, and top or bottom round roast.

Potatoes again head the best buy list of vegetables. Sweet potatoes also are attractively priced, as are peppers, mushrooms, tomatoes, cauliflower, corn and spinach. Onions remain an outstanding bargain.

Apples and fast-increasing supplies of citrus items battle it out for supremacy as the best buy among fruits.

Pears and bananas also are good buys among fruits, along with grapes and plentiful Florida limes.

Suffers Broken Nose, Compliments Officer

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Taylor Bennett 42, of Harrison, suffered a broken nose in a North Little Rock traffic collision today and after hospital treatment, went to police headquarters to compliment the patrolman who investigated the accident.

The trip was not required, since no arrests were made. Bennett's auto collided with another driven by Charles Elmore, 17, of Scott. Patrolman Elmo Smith handled the investigation. "A most courteous officer," was the way Bennett described Smith.

Officers Called to Protect Negro

VAIDEN, Miss. (AP)—Highway patrolmen were ordered to duty at this little north Mississippi town today to insure the safety of a St. Louis Negro being brought into court for a second trial in the slaying of a white woman.

Defense attorney Rupert Ringgold said he will ask Circuit Judge Henry Lee Rodgers to change the trial site of the Negro, Robert Lee Goldsby, 32, if he is unable to have the indictment killed when Goldsby arrives from his penitentiary death row cell.

Goldsby is charged with the 1954 murder of Mrs. Bryant Nelms. His first conviction was thrown out by the federal courts on grounds that Negroes had been systematically excluded from jury duty.

$150,000 Judgment in Injury Suit

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A judgment for $150,000 in settlement of a personal injury suit has been entered in Jackson County probate court in favor of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Taylor, Barling, Ark.

Taylor, 33, was injured Nov. 9, 1958 when his car was struck by a tractor trailer unit of the Trinity Steel Co. of Dallas. He suffered critical head injuries and has not been able to move or talk since the accident. His wife said she spends 15 hours a day caring for him.

Under terms of the judgment, Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. insurers of the steel company, will pay $100,000 in one payment. The steel firm will pay the Taylors $50,000 a year for 10 years.

Two passengers in the car, Everett Roth, and his son, Jerry, 16, Independence, Mo., also have damage suits pending against the firm for injuries suffered in the accident.

There were 7,699 legal kills in the first half of the 1958 season and 9,625 kills for both periods. The total set a record.

Impossible to List Number of Deer Kills

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A spokesman for the Game and Fish Commission said today that all reports indicated a good kill of deer this open season, but added that it was impossible at this time to speculate on what the total might be.

The overall kill undoubtedly will be swollen — perhaps to an all-time record — by the fact that for the first time in some 15 or 20 years hunting is being permitted in all 75 Arkansas counties.

Gus Albright, the commission's publicity director, said that no effort is made to estimate the total kill until after the season's third day. Today is the third day of the first half of the 1959 split season.

Albright said there was no doubt that hunting had been exceptionally good in areas which had been long closed as part of the commission's restocking program.

The first six days of legal deer hunting started Monday.

There will be a similar six-day

Red Ring Cranberry Cake

If you're looking for something special to serve the holiday callers at your house, try Red Ring Cranberry Cake. It's an elegant new type of upside-down cake, delicately textured, with a sparkling cranberry topping — as pretty as it is delicious.

This yellow cake is extra rich and flavorful because it's made with evaporated milk, which is double rich with milk goodness. Pouring the cake batter over the whole, uncooked cranberries may seem unusual to you. But when the cake is turned out, you'll see what happens! As they cook, of course, the cranberries pop, making a juicy, colorful crown for this delicious cake.

For a festive buffet, or a holiday dinner, serve Red Ring Cranberry Cake — and listen to the "ohs and ahs" from your guests.

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 3 Tablesp. melted Butter or Margarine | 2 Eggs |
| 1 cup Sugar | 1 Teaspoon Vanilla |
| 2 cups whole fresh Cranberries | 2 1/2 cups all-purpose Flour |
| 1/2 cup Shortening | 1 Tablesp. Baking Powder |
| 1 cup Sugar | 1 Teaspoon Salt |
| | 1 cup Pet Evaporated Milk |

Turn on oven and set at 350 (moderate). Mix butter, 1 cup sugar and cranberries together in a 1-quart bowl. Spread evenly into bottom of a 9 or 10-inch tube pan. In a large bowl mix together shortening and 1 cup sugar by hand or with electric mixer at medium speed. Stir in eggs and vanilla and beat until very light and fluffy. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add flour mixture alternately with evaporated milk. Each time, stir just until mixed. Pour batter over cranberries and bake about 50 minutes or until done. After baking, invert pan on plate and let stand 1 minute before lifting off pan. Serve warm with hard sauce or cool with ice cream.

Sees No Wrong in Writing About Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—An investigator for a House subcommittee that exposed rigging of TV quiz shows said today he sees nothing improper in writing a magazine article about the inquiry and being paid for it.

The investigator, Richard N. Goodwin, declined to say how much he was paid by Life magazine for his story of the inquiry.

"I refused to let them use the title 'The Inside Story,'" Goodwin said. "I did not want to give the impression that any special inside information was being made available. Anybody who sat through the hearings could have put a similar story together."

He disagreed with criticism suggesting a similarity between a committee member using his special position for profit and quiz contestants being provided with special information to enable them to win.

Goodwin said he had obtained permission from the chairman, Oren Harris (D-Ark.), to write the story and that it was read by Robert W. Lisaman, chief counsel for the subcommittee, before it was sent to Life. Lisaman was not available for comment.

In the article, Goodwin said the man Charles Van Doren ousted on the rigged TV quiz show "Twenty-One" conducted a crusade to expose Van Doren as a fraud.

The ousted contestant, Herbert Stempel, has testified he was ordered by the show's producers to lose to Van Doren. Stempel himself had won $40,000.

Goodwin wrote that Stempel was infuriated by Van Doren's going on to win $120,000 and unearned nationwide fame as a great brain.

Eisenhower Reconvenes Steel Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today reconvened his board of inquiry into the steel dispute. He again expressed hope that both sides in the controversy will continue negotiations and reach a settlement as soon as possible.

Eisenhower acted under the 1947 labor law which provides that inquiry boards shall report to the president 60 days after a strike has been halted by an 60-day court injunction.

The 60 days started with the upholding of the injunction last Saturday by the U. S. Supreme Court. If the dispute has not been settled by the end of the 60 days, the board will report the final offer of the steel companies to the union.

Once the inquiry board report, the law provides that the National Labor Relation Board shall within 15 days conduct a referendum in which union member will vote on whether to accept management final offer.

While House press secretary James C. Hagerty said that when the inquiry board reconvenes it will work with Joseph F. Finn-gan, chairman of the mediation and Conciliation service, who, under the law, has the responsibility for continuing the negotiations.

Hagerty said in reconvening the board, headed by Dr. George W. Taylor of Philadelphia, the President "re-emphasized sincerely, and trusts that both sides will recognize their responsibilities to the United States and will continue negotiations and reach a settlement as soon as possible."

Cancelled Orders Bring Steel Cut

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two fabricating plants of U. S. Steel Corp. are working at three-fourths capacity because the steel strike caused customers to cancel orders, the company says.

The firm is trying to get more work. It was found by a search party last night in a deer stand on Woods Mountain 12 miles northeast of here.

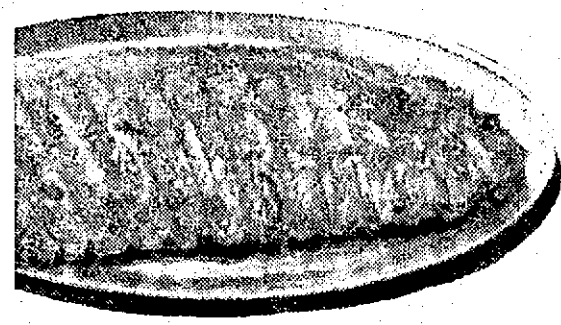

Coroner Dennis C. Vaughn said Gray apparently suffered a heart attack on the hunting trip. Survivors include his widow and one son.

work to warrant returning employees to their jobs, C. Lee is president of U. S. Consolidated Western Steel.

His statement came in a charge by Charles J. Director of Dist. 28, United workers of America, that company in laying off a quarter of its workers is violating the U. S. Supreme Court to-work order.

Rice production in Arkansas extends from Clay County north to Chicot county, south, with some production in central and southwest Arkansas.
